Suzuki violin, viola and cello students, at least age 11 and in grades 6 and up, currently studying in Suzuki Book 4 and higher are encouraged to audition for this exclusive touring ensemble, led by our esteemed faculty, Meredith Harris, Elisabeth Hope and Danette Schuh.

Each Dolce Strings Touring Ensemble Series begins with a full day intensive workshop, taught by our expert faculty, followed by local concerts at exciting venues and out-of town tours. This season the following exciting events are planned: Friendswood Farmers' Market concert, Houston Zoo Lights, performances at the Bob Wills Fiddle Festival in Greenville, a featured concerto performance onstage with the Pasadena Philharmonic Orchestra, a trip to Galveston for Mardi Gras and more! We're also going to hit the road for an amazing tour to New Orleans, Louisiana! We hope you will join us!
